Decisions made outside of meetings due to Covid-19 pandemic.	Actions	Further information
Unfortunately, chairs have been stolen from the allotments as well. The Clerk has written to the allotment holder who managed to find the chairs in a camp that has been set up in the woods. The boundary security is being investigated.	Update will be given at meeting to minute.	Information will be circulated when received.
The Remembrance Service was unfortunately cancelled due to the Covid-19 restrictions.	A small wreath laying service was held. Cancellation of the event was communicated via the website and local Facebook pages.	-
Management Advisory Group – Gallagher's will take place on the 19 th November 2020 10am	CLlr Manser will attend on behalf of BPC	-
Highways Seminar will take place on the 19 th November 2020	CLlr Gooch will attend on behalf of BPC	-
Refuse collection from field is suspended due to lockdown and will resume 9 th December.	Dates for Xmas collections have also been emailed to Karen at MBC.	-
New PCSO covering Barming. Paul Vasey	Contact details have been circulated to members.	The Clerk will keep in regular contact with Paul regarding any issues within the parish.
Support for shielding and vulnerable residents. As there has been changes to the support that is given by the Government, parishes are asked to be contacts for these residents in the event that they need help.	The Clerk has provided her contact details and will work with the Church and local companies to provide assistance if required. Last lockdown the Clerk managed to secure a number of food parcels which were distributed by the Rev Will North.	The Clerk will keep members up to date with any requests.
Both halls have been deep cleaned by Dusters.	Cheque has been written for payment of invoice.	-

The Clerk attended the SLCC Conference and completed various KALC Training Courses.	All courses completed and assessments passed.	-
The Clerk has placed the co-option of Alice Williams on the November agenda.	The Clerk has sent the zoom joining link and the agenda to Alice.	-
There have been some issues with receiving the Natwest bank statements this month. Unfortunately, two pages have been missed so the Clerk cannot complete the finances until a full print out has been received.	The Clerk and Chairman have been in contact with the bank and the Clerk will circulate the completed finances as soon as she possibly can.	The Clerk will post out the Unity Trust log on details so that members can make themselves familiar with the website. Hopefully we can then have this as the main account to solve the constant issues with the statements.
